

When television time is unpaid, television stations have an obligation to give equal time to all major candidates. If Sinclair airs a pro-Bush film and does not give equal and comparable time to Senator Kerry, it is patently unfair. Please prevent this.